Austin 10

A unique wallet-style case to protect ultra-compact digital devices

The Austin 10 wallet offers a stylish choice for protecting and carrying an ultra-compact camera or small digital device. Slim, lightweight and uniquely designed to open like a book, the Austin 10 fits neatly in a pocket, tote, briefcase or backpack. Thread a camera strap through the top opening to create an instant carrying handle. Two interior pockets store gear securely – a stretchy mesh pocket and slash pocket for a memory card, ID or credit card.

The Austin 10 is available in Black or Red, each with contrast topstitching all around, adding an appealing detail.
